

Right to Buy and Right to Acquire

Right to Buy

If your home used to be owned by your local authority and was sold to us while you were living there, you may be able to buy your home from us at a discount using the Right to Buy ('Preserved Right to Buy') scheme.

Four local authorities transferred their homes to us on the following dates:

- Suffolk Coastal District Council on 22 May 1991
- Breckland District Council on 31 March 1993
- Forest Heath District Council on 11 October 2004
- North Norfolk District Council on 13 February 2006

If you were a tenant of any of these four local authorities at the date of the transfer, you may have the Right to Buy. There are many other factors that will determine your eligibility, so you'll need to submit an application so that we can assess this fully.

Discount available

Depending on how long you've been a tenant, you'll receive a discount on the purchase price of your home. Details of the discount available are below.

- You'll receive a 35% discount for the first five years of your tenancy
- A further 1% discount is applied for every year thereafter (2% for flats), up to a maximum of 70%

As of 21 November 2024, the maximum discount you're entitled to is £34,000.

Timescales for the Right to Buy and Right to Acquire process

Once we receive your application form, we'll get back you to within four weeks, at which point we may ask for some additional information. If you're eligible, we'll send you an offer to purchase your home within 12 weeks from the date of the acceptance letter. During this time, you'll be contacted by a surveyor to carry out a valuation. We may also require an Energy Performance Certificate (EPC) to be carried out on your home. You'll have 12 weeks after you receive your offer to tell us if you still want to buy.
